Observations...

By the Editor

We want to thank our friend, Murphy Weir, Editor of the Democrat at Poplarville, for the nice things he said about us and our candidacy for the Board of Supervisors job. Thanks Murphy.

We have been doing quite a little bit of thinking about the reservation of funds for the Bay St. Louis Housing authority. . . . And the more we think, the stronger we are in our original opinion that there is no need for the building of a low-rent housing project in Bay St. Louis. . . . We have ample rental property and local private capital to build more if necessary. . . . certainly we can never reconcile the position of a government in competition with local enterprise. . . . Another point which is not entirely clear in our mind, and which we would like to have someone clarify, is, once the buildings are completed, if the rentals are not sufficient to take care of the upkeep, etc., then who pays the interest and principal payments to the federal government.

We want to thank Mrs. George S. Horton for her letter, which is published in this issue, giving us the reason for the change of the location for holding the ceremonies Carnival day from the City Hall to the Courthouse. Mrs. Horton's letter will clear, not only our own mind, but many others who have asked the question as to why the king did not greet his queen, as heretofore, at the City Hall. We certainly wish more people would use the columns of the paper in matters of public interest as has been done in this case. Thanks again, Mrs. Horton.

Commander Fred E. Fayard of the Clement R. Bontemps Post of the American Legion is appealing to the veterans to renew their membership in the local post. He cites the fact that the Legion, after all, is the working organization of veterans, and that many benefits for the former servicemen are derived from the concerted efforts of the National organization. The local post has been most active and has always been very high in membership; and Fred is certain that the boys will not let him down in his attempt to again reach the top in membership.

In this week's issue we have a notice published by the Board of Supervisors asking for bids for material and labor for the construction of an addition to the Clerk of Courts office. This additional space will be an enlargement of the vault. This is certainly a move in the right direction. There is really an urgent need for more space, as it has reached the point where there is hardly room to walk in it, let alone work, and store more records.

ROGER BOH JR. RECEIVE WINGS

Pensacola, Florida, February 9, 1951—Navy wings of gold now adorn the uniform of Ensign Roger M. Boh of the United States Navy. Having successfully completed his flight training, he was designated a Naval Aviator yesterday during ceremonies at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida.

Ensign Boh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger M. Boh, Sr., of Bay St. Louis, was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy in June of 1949 and served with the fleet for four months. He began his active flight training in October of 1949 when he reported to the U. S. Naval School, Pre-Flight, at NAS Pensacola, where he completed a strenuous schedule in military, academic and physical training. From Pre-Flight, he was advanced to basic training which consisted of primary, aerobatics, instruments, gunnery and tactics and was climaxed by six takeoffs and landings in his SNJ "Texan" trainer aboard the aircraft carrier USS CABOT.

He was then sent to advanced training at Corpus Christi, Texas, for a four month syllabus in combat type aircraft. After this, he returned to Pensacola to qualify aboard the USS MONTEREY in his combat type aircraft before receiving his wings.

C. O. Dufour Announces for Supervisor, Beat 5

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of C. O. (Buddy) Dufour, for office of Supervisor Beat 5, Hancock County, Mississippi, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary election to be held August 7, 1951.

To The Voters of Beat Five Hancock County, Mississippi

I wish to advise all the voters of Beat No. 5, that I am a candidate for the office of Supervisor of Beat No. 5, and that I am for honest and liberal government, believing this cost area to be a resort center where tourists come to enjoy themselves to the fullest. Our neighboring coastal counties are all progressing with business booming which is the result of liberal government.

I am strongly in favor of good roads, and promise to personally supervise these roads and see that they are properly cared for and put in tip top shape. I also promise that I will do every thing in my power to extend the sand beach from Bay St. Louis to Bayou Cadiz.

I am in favor of abolishing personal taxes on personal mobile property, especially on commercial trucks that the working man uses to make his daily bread. I believe that we can greatly reduce, or better yet, abolish personal taxes on automobiles. I will do every thing in my power to equalize the real estate assessment both on improvements and land.

I will promise to entice and solicit any factory or manufacturing plant to locate in Hancock County and will do all in my power to exempt them from all taxes if they can guarantee us a monthly pay-roll of fifty or more employees.

Again, I sincerely solicit your vote and support in the August Primary Election, and hope to meet all of you in person.

Sincerely yours for, Better and Liberal Government C. O. (Buddy) Dufour

Mrs. Chas. Storey Addresses P-T. A.

Mrs. Charles Storey, Gulfport, P-T. A. district chairman, was guest speaker at the February meeting of the Central School P-T. A. held Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Storey, who spoke on "Our Times and Our Tasks," said that due to the rapidly changing times it has become imperative to educate all families to understand and accept changes and to direct those changes in the best paths as much as possible. The P-T. A. is endeavoring to do this through a broad program of training of lay leaders. Mississippi has planned extensive programs of Parent Education and leadership training for the coming summer.

Mrs. T. T. Robin presided at the meeting in the absence of Mrs. S. J. Mauffray, president, who is ill. The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. F. J. Nelson, and George Wimberley presented the Boys' Chorus in four selections accompanied by Temple Perkins.

Linda Sue Lee, third grade, and Beverly Schindler, fourth grade, gave the report of current events of the school during the past month. They announced that books had been obtained to start the new Room Libraries and that the fourth, fifth and sixth grades would purchase a phonograph with the prize money won by their float in the recent Carnival parade.

A motion was passed that the P-T. A. president appoint a committee to submit titles for the Carnival parade of 1952 and that these names be presented to the membership at its last meeting for 1951. This will allow more time for planning the floats.

The organization voted to send $10 as a Founders Day gift to P-T. A.

Mrs. McDonald outlined a new plan for books to be sent through CARE for the use of children in elementary grades in war ravaged countries. She moved that an international book project be established. This was seconded by Mrs. Theodore Thomas, and it was voted that the books be sent to the children.

Mrs. W. W. James was requested to obtain from Dr. C. M. Shipp information concerning a new method of conducting the annual health "Summer Round-Up."

The fifth grade was the winner of the attendance prize. The meeting adjourned to the Home Economics room where a birthday cake, recognizing Founders' Day, was cut by Mrs. Storey. The table was decorated with a centerpiece in the shape of a red heart, holding red carnations and silvered berries. Red mint hearts, birthday cake and coffee were served.

Bradford; Mrs. Arthur Weber, a ceremony at 3 p. m. in the Confederate Memorial Hall by chapter recorder of crosses and Mrs. H. W. Littleton, Louisiana division recorder of crosses.

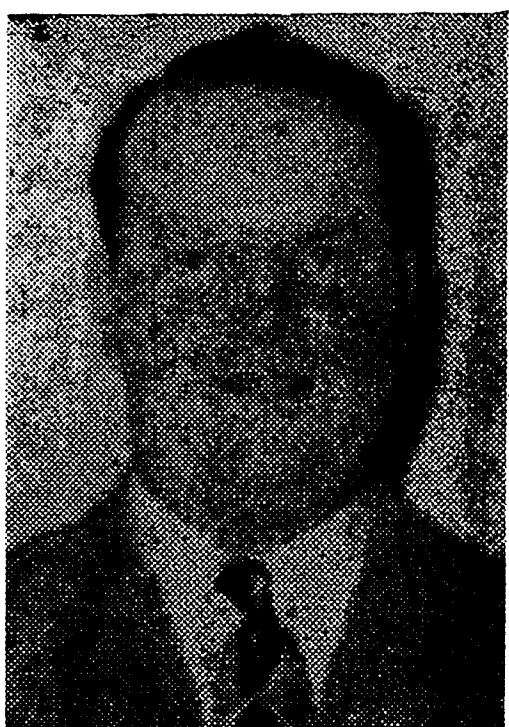

The Rev. Carl Scutten, pastor of St. Patrick's church, said the invocation at the ceremony, which had been postponed from Robert E. Lee's birthday, January 19, because of illness in the Heath family. Mrs. Mary E. Wakefield, chapter chaplain, offered the closing benediction.

Mrs. Alvin D. Carpenter led the pledge to Old Glory and the salute to the Confederate flag. Miss Marian Black, chapter historian, read Tennyson's, "Crossing the Bar" and Mrs. F. C. Kohlman played the national anthem and "Dixie."

The UDC crosses are bestowed upon US heroes of Confederate lineage.

Fitzhugh Lee, Sam Whitfield and C. Donald Wahl, have been named as members of the Hancock County Production and Marketing Committee, by the delegates to the County convention, which was held in Bay St. Louis February 5, 1951.

DELEGATES

The delegates, Alton A. Kellogg, August Moran, C. Donald Wahl, Louis J. Banderet, John Koennn and Fitzhugh Lee, were elected in their respective districts at the election held January 30. This election was called by the State Production and Marketing Committee, and was held by representatives of this committee, following an order of the State Committee, suspending the members of the former committee, and declaring as void the election of delegates to the County convention at an election held November 18, 1950.

SOLICITED VOTES

This action was taken by the State Committee, following the filing of protest by Otho Rester, Fitzhugh Lee and other interested farmers. They charged that the November election was not held in conformity to the rules and regulations, and that members of the committee solicited votes for candidates of their choice before the opening of the polls. They charged that the ballot boxes were carried to the homes of various people and that influence was exercised on these people in the casting of their ballots. The state committee sustained the protest and ordered the election held anew on January 30, 1951.

In addition to the delegates named above the following community committees were named: Ansley-Napoleon District: Andrew Ladner, chairman; Thornton Brown, vice chairman; Herbert Zengarling, member. Flat Top-Aaron Academy District: Archie McQueen, chairman; Julius L. Davis, vice chairman; C. S. Stinson, regular member. Sellers-Dedeaux-Ladner District: Frank Shaw, chairman; Claude Ladner, vice chairman; Joseph L. Ladner, regular member. Kithen-Rocky Hill District: Sidney Garriga, chairman; Leo Garriga, vice chairman; Rufus Cuevas, regular member. Bay St. Louis-Lakeshore District: O. V. Moran, chairman; O. W. Delph, vice chairman; Clarence Moran, regular member. Leetown-Catahoula District: George A. Spiers, chairman; Alphonse Lee, vice chairman and Troy Bilbo, regular member.

RESULTS CERTIFIED

Immediately following the holding of the election of January 30, the results were certified to the State Committee, and were approved by them. In turn the delegates were notified of their election and the meeting of February 5, was held, at which time Messrs. Lee, Whitfield and Wahl were elected with Mr. Lee being named chairman; Mr. Whitfield, vice chairman and Mr. Wahl as a regular member. They succeeded Randolph Seal, Thomas Dossett and Alfred E. Smith, members of the former committee.

August Moran, the delegate from the Ansley-Napoleon District, was not present at the meeting which elected the committee.

Hancock County Pays .53 Percent Of The State Taxes

Hancock County taxpayers would save $323,141 in federal taxes next year if Congress would carry out Senator Harry Byrd's proposals for cutting a billion dollars of unessential expenditures from the federal budget recommended by President Truman for the fiscal year 1952, the Mississippi Economic Council estimates.

Senator Byrd's budget-paring recommendations were made in a release last week. His statement urged that the estimated expenditures of 71.6 billion dollars in the President's proposed budget be reduced to 62.5 billion. Practically all the resulting 9.1 billion reduction would come from non-military items, Senator Byrd said.

Let's Have A Little More?

We are very pleased this week to be able to publish two letters, one addressed to the editor and the other to the Board of Supervisors of the County and the Mayor and Commission Council of the City of Bay St. Louis. We are particularly interested in the letter addressed to the editor for it is an answer to a question we raised in our column in our last issue. The other letter, of course, is of far greater importance, and its subject matter is one that actually deserves consideration as it is vital to our welfare. The seawall is most important to all of the people of Hancock County, and the section under discussion, which is located at the head of Carroll Avenue, it means much to the City of Bay St. Louis. We have urged on several occasions, that the matter be given primary consideration, but to no avail.

Our greatest desire is to have the people of this section use the columns of our paper for a sound and sensible discussion of our needs. A newspaper, after all, is a public service. It is our duty, as we see it, to give expressions of our views in our editorial columns, on matters vital to the welfare of the community and county; and this we shall continue to do. However, we are not infallible. We are human beings, and certainly we cannot be right all of the time. There is nothing which would be more pleasing to us than to hear from our readers, whether they agree with our thoughts or not.

As little as you think, you too, have many worthwhile ideas, but who knows about them? We have the columns of our paper to express ours, and we feel that it is also our duty to make these columns available to you. As we have said before, we think a sound and sensible discussion of matters, in which we are vitally interested, would redound to the benefit of our community and our county.

Our only request would be that indulging in personalities be avoided, and if the writer does not wish to have his name published, we shall be happy to comply with his wishes.

This may be the means of developing a real community service which would, in time, bring greater cooperation among our people. A free expression of unbiased thought is quite wholesome for the individual and for the community interest. May we have more of it?

Mr. and Mrs. George Ladner who were married in Pearllington, February 3, are shown at the reception following the ceremony. Mrs. Ladner is the former Margaret Ann Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Murphy Sr., of Napoleon. Mr. Ladner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ladner of Ansley.

Dear Editor:

In answering an item in your last week's "Observations," in order to clarify any misunderstanding in the minds of the public, as an individual and as chairman of the Mardi Gras Carnival, I wish to inform the public that the discussion about the change of the ceremonies from the City Hall to the Court House was brought up for general discussion at the special meeting of interested persons for the promotion of the Mardi Gras, in the Bay II auditorium, a year ago. It was decided to and voted upon to change because of many reasons, —the City Hall had a beautiful flower garden and the crowd was so large that there was not ample space; The City Hall bannister and that part of the porch was badly in need of repairs; a freight train divided the parade and caused some of the horses to become frightened—and the Mardi Gras Carnival was promoted for Hancock County as well as the City of Bay St. Louis, the school children in the County attend Bay Central School to complete their high school education, and the Board of Supervisors and other County officials contribute to the promotion of the Parade in various ways.

Our Mayor has attended all the general Mardi Gras meetings and has served in many capacities requested of him with dignity of his office and graciousness of a public-spirited citizen.

The affair was promoted for everyone, a citizen should not wait on invitation, it has tried to include every interested person as we do need their services, time and labor. Let's work together, and make this a truly splendid occasion of the people for the People and by the People."

MRS. GEO. S. HORTON

Commission Council and Board of Supervisors
Bay St. Louis, Miss.
Gentlemen:

Now that the hurricane season is definitely behind us, yet your thoughts and attention should be directed to preserving and protecting the heavy investments that you made in reconstructing Front Street, North and South of the Highway Bridge, for within this year another hurricane season may be our experience.

How well do we all remember how business suffered when this strip of road was washed out. The thought of this was vividly brought to mind again this past year, and I know to all of the business people of Bay St. Louis, when the report or least the reports of several hurricanes were headed this way.

The City expended a considerable sum of money, after the above mentioned reports were received, in a frantic effort to protect this strip of road using sand bags; the effect of this was highly doubtful, but at least it showed foresightedness on their part in trying to preserve the heavy investment made to reconstruct this road.

Should another hurricane of any intensity whatever, unfortunately strike the sea wall and Front Street would unquestionably be washed away, and the open gap now existing in the seawall would let in the storm water that would in all probability keep eating away the support sand behind the present seawall.

It is possible now for a very reasonable sum of money to have this gap of seawall replaced with County labor and County employed help.

It may seem foolish to be writing this letter to you at this time, however, it is done with the hope that you will begin to think about the serious situation now so that before the next hurricane season, work can be completed to protect your heavy investment and to likewise keep open the main artery of travel from the Highway bridge to and through town. Please think about this.

Yours very truly,

GEO. S. HORTON.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

Check and Repair Your Equipment

By HOWARD SIMMONS

Higher costs of farm production this year, scarcity of labor, and the need to grow more for defense make it wise to check and repair equipment now for the most efficient service during the busy cropping season. More than ever it will pay to so far as possible prevent work stoppage because of mechanical troubles.

Start now by working on equipment which will be used first. Inspect and adjust tractors, stalk cutters, disc harrows and plows.

Snug fit and free movement of all journals and bearings is important in rolling equipment. If bearings are too loose, shims or inner liners should be removed and repaired or adjusted for a closer fit.

Blades of both stalk cutters and disk implements should be aligned and sharpened.

Remove rust from plow shares and moldboards which have not been rust-proofed. This is for proper scouring when in use.

Inspect accessible parts of the and order repairs as soon as possible. Tie a shipping tag to each part that is to be repaired or replaced.

Guides for checking the tractor are the manufacturer's instruction book and Mississippi Extension Circular 133.

SELECTING COTTON LAND

Selecting fields well adapted to cotton has a lot to do with higher yields per acre, which growers have generally agreed is the main way to increase production this year. Plant only where a bale to the acre can be produced.

Start with cotton in making an overall farm plan, including crop rotation. Avoid cotton eroded or slightly eroded parts of fields. Many such areas can be planted into good pastures. Plant cotton, where possible, on terraced fields in the hills and well drained fields with proper row arrangement in the Delta. This controls the rate of water flow.

Well drained soil that will warm up early in the spring aids rapid and uniform germination of cotton seed.

Cotton land should be as high as possible in humus or organic matter, such as often follows cover crops.

Fast, economical machinery operation should also be considered. It may be best to have broadcast or row crops other than cotton on narrow hill terraces, or in depressions in the Delta.

Soil samples sent to the laboratory at State College will show how much and what kind of fertilizer must be used to produce maximum economic yields.

Tomato, pepper and eggplant plants can be had for early April planting if a hotbed is started now.

Plants remain in the hotbed for four to five weeks after seeding, and are then transferred to the cold frame for another four to five weeks.

If some early tomato or pepper plants have been started, they can best be set 10 days or two weeks before the usual date if covered with paper or other materials when frost appears.

Home gardening is even more important than usual this year. Some materials may be scarce, so buy now the fertilizer, insecticides and seed of varieties wanted.

MISSISSIPPI SAFETY COUNCIL

Col. T. B. Birdsong, Commissioner of Public Safety, stated today, "Traffic deaths in Mississippi increased for the month of January at an alarming rate. Incomplete reports received by the accident Bureau of the Patrol show 52 persons lost their lives in traffic accidents on Mississippi streets and highways during the month of January. This is compared to 27 killed in January, 1950."

Col. Birdsong further stated that this figure will go higher as several more are in hospitals now in a serious condition and, too, all reports are not in. Forty deaths occurred on State and U. S. Highways, compared to 16 on these same highways in January, 1950. One on county roads compared to 6 in January, 1950. Eleven were killed on city streets, compared to 5 in January, 1950.

It is true some of these deaths were caused by icy roads, however, most of them were attributable to the same many violations of our laws and in many instances, carelessness on the part of the driver and many pedestrians. In addition to deaths, the Highway Patrol investigated 312 accidents, with 150 injured bad enough to go to a hospital and over two hundred thousand dollars worth of cars and trucks destroyed.

Col. Birdsong further stated, "We need all available man-power and equipment for the War Effort, so please 'slow down, drive cautiously, obey our laws—and help us to save your life and limbs.'"

RED CROSS NOTES

Miss Dorothy Ludwig, nursing service representative of the American National Red Cross, from Atlanta, Georgia, visited the Hancock County chapter last Friday, February 9, to meet all those interested in taking Home Nursing Classes.

All registered nurses in the community who are interested in teaching home nursing courses are requested to contact the Red Cross office in the Court House, phone 67.

Materials for the Junior Red Cross drive have been taken to most of the schools, and memberships are coming in.

Everyone is requested to send his membership as soon as possible, in order to avoid missing any issues of the folder.

Members of Delta Sigma Chi of Bay St. Louis made 300 favors for veterans of the Gulf port Veterans' Administration hospital through the American National Red Cross Community Services.

These were used for the Carnival Ball held at the hospital Monday night, February 5. Miss Alberta Beyer and Mrs. B. Smith, gray ladies, and Mrs. Gertrude Saucier helped in "making up" the veterans for the occasion; they stayed to assist with the entertainment.

HISTORY TO AMERICA

Wood was discovered as a tool for everyday living in America long before the settlers got here. Objects made of wood have been found, excellently preserved, among the ancient relics of prehistoric house builders and cliff dwellers.

G. Huth Named Bond Chairman

George A. Huth, President of the Mississippi Products, Inc., Jackson, has been appointed chairman of the Payroll Savings Bond program in Mississippi, according to an announcement by the Savings Bonds Division of the U. S. Treasury Department, Washington.

Mr. Huth will be chairman of a state-wide committee, which will operate in connection with the U. S. Savings Bond program in Mississippi. The Treasury Department, in announcing Mr. Huth's appointment, stated that the payroll savings program is to be "greatly expanded" due to the national emergency. Special emphasis will be placed upon this type of savings during the next six months at least.

Within recent months, a survey has been made of businesses and individuals in Mississippi to determine the feasibility of instituting the payroll savings program. Mr. Huth's committee is to follow up the work of the state office in this connection.

Members of the committee will be appointed at a later date, the Treasury Department said. Approximately eight more men of top-management level will be named to serve with him. After the committee is completed, a series of district meetings will be held to put the program into effect.

Meanwhile, any firm wishing to institute the payroll savings bond program is asked to write Mr. Huth, in care of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division, Box 747, in Jackson, and complete details will be furnished.

The new chairman is well-known throughout the state. He has been President of Mississippi Products, Inc., since it was organized in 1945. He played a major role in conceiving the plant and having it located in the state. It is the second largest factory in Mississippi, employing 1700 people.

Coast Electric To Assist Schools And Organizations With Lighting Plan

The Coast Electric Power Association, local REA Cooperative serving the rural areas of Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River Counties, this week announced the opening of a campaign to assist schools, PTA organizations and other interested groups in obtaining adequate lighting conditions for home study.

Coast Electric, with the aid of the best in scientific research, has worked out a recipe for the improvement of lighting facilities for study at home. This recipe is to be given as a demonstration to the rural schools and Women's Clubs in the area served by Coast Electric. The demonstration will be practical, and will feature the arrangement of a typical home study center such as can be easily and economically duplicated in any home.

Coast Electric's Home Electrician will summarize the findings of research groups as to lighting conditions, and by means of a light meter will show adequate versus inadequate lighting conditions.

Studies show that over 10 million grade school, high school and college students take home study assignments daily. The hours required for this home study vary with the student and the educational level; but they occur, during most of the school year, in the late afternoon or evening when artificial light is needed. For every student, home work involves critical eye work, fixed position and mental attentiveness. The learning acquired, as well as the eye-use, posture and attitude habits formed during this period influence a lifetime. Such a vital and habitual activity deserves a planned study center, one that combines every element and ingredient that is now known to aid the student's visual, physical and mental progress.

Some of the necessary individual ingredients are well known and have been recommended often, but only recently have they been sufficiently correlated to formulate what may be called the tested recipe. It involves the same accurate attention to measurement, quality and combination of ingredients as does any other tested recipe so painstakingly developed by scientists for food preparation, balanced meals, or planned kitchens or laundries. It, like these recipes, is supported by research.

This tested recipe is not difficult or expensive to carry out, once its contribution to faster, easier and more eye-protective and pleasant accomplishment of homework is understood. Should the fact be calmly accepted, without question or preventive effort, that one college student in three acquires eye glasses as well as a degree, that eyesight defectiveness begins with young students and increases with educational progress? Coast Electric is in an enviable position to teach this tested recipe for study centers to great numbers of students and parents, and are happy that the opportunity is theirs. They will be glad to cooperate with any group of their members in this timely and important matter.

Plan Bull Sale In Canton March 14

Mississippi Aberdeen Angus Breeders Association will hold its first all bull sale at Canton, March 14, in the Madison County Livestock Association yards.

The Aberdeen Angus Breeders of Mississippi will sell 45 registered bulls beginning at 1:00 p. m., according to Joe Lyon, Olive Branch, Mississippi, who is President of the Mississippi Breeders and Dudley Moore Byhalia, Mississippi, Secretary and Treasurer. Canton was selected for this new and important event due to its central location, its rapidly developing cattle industry and especially due to the fine cooperative spirit of its people.

Bulls for sale have been selected from herds of:

H. M. Taylor, Como; W. B. Dryan, West Point; W. S. Taylor, Como; Shelby L. Nelson, Union; L. T. Senter, Aberdeen; Kit Bryant, Calhoun City; E. W. DeLoach, Grenada; J. R. Richardson, Ridgeland; Charles Clark, Ruth; J. E. Lyon, Olive Branch; Walter Swoope, Columbus; J. A. McCrary, Columbus.

These bulls are from such popular blood lines as Eileenmere, Sunbeam, and Bandolier. This set of bulls are of the proper age and condition to do good service this year in the herds of their buyers, says J. E. Richardson, Sales Manager.

The growing popularity of the "Blocky Blacks" is evidenced on all sides by the unprecedented demand for breeding stock. This has long been true in the East and South, and lately the old cattle country of the Southwest has become the greatest buyer of the Aberdeen-Angus bulls.

Mississippi cattlemen in need of bulls will do well to examine the record of the Angus cattle and to attend this sale.

FORAGE CROPS FROM SOUTH AMERICA AND AFRICA GIVEN TEST

SANYO MILLET AND TWO SORGHUM VARIETIES SHOW PROMISE WHEN COMPARED WITH OTHER SUMMER CROPS GROWN IN STATE

State College Miss. — Forage plants from Africa and South America showed promise of being adapted to Mississippi conditions in tests conducted at the McNeill unit of the South Mississippi Branch Experiment Station last year.

Sanyo millet and two recent sorghum introductions are the plants showing promise as summer grazing crops in preliminary tests conducted at McNeill. The performances of the varieties was compared with pearl millet, tift sudan grass and several other varieties was compared with Pearl millet, tift sudan grass and several other varieties.

Yields reported by Henry A. Johnson, USDA agronomist formerly stationed at McNeill, show that pearl millet and tift sudan grass are outstanding for summer grazing crops available from commercial seed sources. Sanyo millet from Nigeria, Africa, yields somewhat less than pearl millet but it is considerably more leafy and appears to have a longer grazing season. Starr millet, a variety recently released in Georgia, resembles sanyo millet in leafiness and may have advantages in somewhat earlier seed maturity.

Of the sorghums, Pekenne sorghum from Chile, South America, shows promise of being a perennial based on plantings made at McNeill in the spring of 1949. This variety is leafy and fine-stemmed but unlike Johnson grass, it does not spread from the roots. Sorghum introduction PI-156549 from Rhodesia, Africa, is also leafy and fine stemmed and shows promise by its ability to volunteer from reseeded. Excellent stands and growth of PI-156549 sorghum have been maintained at McNeill or 2 years by volunteer reseeded from plants originally established in the spring of 1948.

Diseases are a major factor on most summer grazing crops. The cattail millets—represented by pearl, sanyo and star varieties in this test—are relatively free from plant diseases. On the other hand, most sorghum varieties are severely injured by diseases which attack the leaves and stems. In all tests conducted at the McNeill Station, tift sudan grass has been considerably more disease-resistant than common or sweet sudan grass. Sorghum introductions, Pekenne and PI-156549, show moderate resistance to plant diseases.

LIKE all other living things, trees have a youth, a maturity, and an old age.

Forest trees which give us our lumber, our pulpwood, plywood, and countless other daily necessities, produce most useful wood in their early and middle life.

Good forestry and good management calls for harvesting mature trees before decay sets in and makes them less valuable to the nation, creating a breeding place for destructive insects and disease.

Good forest management creates a cycle of continuous tree crops. That is the basis on which this company operates with an eye on today... an eye on tomorrow.

HOME AGENT'S NOTES

By MISS MADGE ALLRED

In a recent survey conducted by the Mississippi Experiment Station, it was shown that more than thirty percent of the women interviewed worked more than 56 hours a week. This is an average of more than eight hours a day seven days a week.

These working hours must be reduced, not only for the thirty percent working more than 56 hours, but the time spent in homemaking must be reduced so that women of the low income group can spend more time in gainful employment.

Children, especially older children, need more of the time now spent by mothers doing the every day chores of homemaking.

More efficient methods of doing tasks and by using time wisely and cleaning away after meals, house cleaning and laundering are necessary if time is to be saved. This means finding the most economical way of performing the tasks, as by planning ahead, by placing equipment and materials in a better place, by using both hands in performing tasks and by using time saving equipment.

Examine your work schedule and see if it cannot be improved. Make use of facilities outside the home and see if the bakery and commercial laundries will help save time. Make more efficient use of the other members of the family. A good test as to how good a home manager is, is how many and how well her daughters can perform household jobs.

If you, as a homemaker, are spending too much time in food preparation and cleaning away after meals, check up on the job you are doing. It may be advisable to use more easily prepared or ready cooked foods.

Every homemaker has the amount of time. There are no time rich or time poor homemakers. It is up to each to make her time worthwhile to herself and to her family.

FOOD NOTES

Enriched corn meal is good food made better. Encourage your millers to enrich his meal. Enriching adds Thiamine, Riboflavin, Niacin, Iron and Calcium to the meal.

Thiamine is needed for meal functioning of the nerves. Riboflavin helps prevent pellagra. Iron builds red blood and calcium helps build strong bones and sound teeth.

Enriching corn meal adds only about four cents a hundred pounds to the cost of the meal. There is no where else that you can get so much more for so little. Proper diet and enriched corn meal are the best ways to get your needed vitamins.

NO MOSQUITOES NEXT SUMMER

Plan now to have no mosquitoes next spring and summer. Remember that mosquitoes are disease carriers. Get rid of them. High weeds and stagnant water are mosquito breeding places. Don't let these get ahead of you; plan now to cut the weeds around the home before they grow large. Do not let water set in empty cans or bottles—remove them. Drain or pour oil on all stagnant water holes; this will prevent the mosquito from using them for breeding places.

Trinity Circles Meet

Trinity Guild Circles No. 1 and No. 2, of Trinity Episcopal Church, held a joint meeting at the Parish House on Friday, February 9th.

After the World Prayer for the day had been offered by the president of circle one, Mrs. C. D. Taylor, Sr., a report of the delegates who had gone to the sixteenth annual meeting in the Mississippi diocese of the Women's Auxiliary gave their report or proceedings. These were held in Natchez, Miss.

Mrs. Warren Adam and Mrs. William Kalif presented very comprehensive and interesting reports of the meeting, which lasted three days. Stress was placed on the youth training in religion in the homes and in the colleges, according to the delegates.

While there was a large attendance at the sessions, many delegates could not appear because of the ice and snow which isolated Natchez completely.

Pleas were made for assistance to Seawance and All Saint's Foundation as their needs are many if they are to train the youth who are entrusted to them.

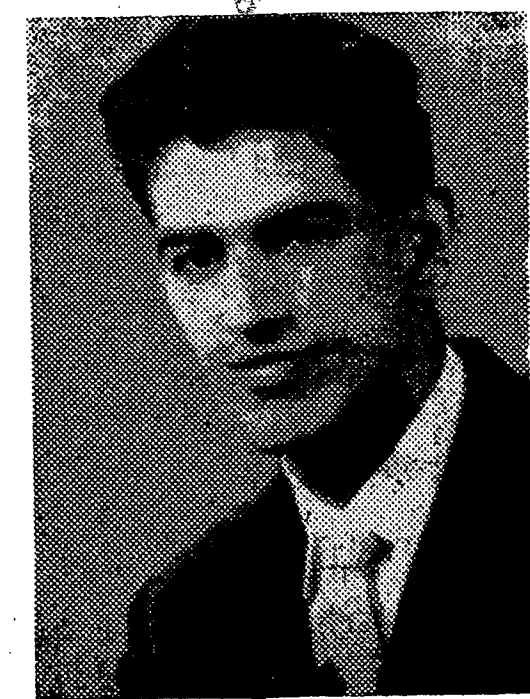

Announcement was made that the Valentine Tea usually held at this time was to be postponed indefinitely.

Mrs. Taylor asked that the members attend a book review to be given at the home of Mrs. George K. Shields for the benefit of the Methodist Church. "The reviewer will be Mrs. Pauline C. Dabney, whom we all know and appreciate," said Mrs. Taylor.

Following the benediction given by Mrs. C. D. Taylor, Sr., the meeting was adjourned and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. L. H. Barksdale, Mrs. Philip S. Pugh and Mrs. Minor E. Sutter.

The ladies were joined by the members of the Vestry who had held their meeting at the rectory.

Because of illness neither Rev. Willis G. Clark nor Mrs. Clark were able to be present at the meeting.

Gulf Coast Council Of Garden Clubs Elects Officers At Monthly Meeting

N. C. C. W. Meets

A brief discourse on the Confaternity of Christian Doctrine and its functioning was given by Rev. Father George O'Malley, C. M., at the meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women in Long Beach Wednesday, February 14.

Miss Margaret Pitchford, diocesan president, in a special letter, stated that this is Catholic Press Month, and urged that Catholic literature be placed in the home and places where it can be read.

Members who could give a pint of blood were asked to sign for the Gulfport Blood Bank. All members who have entertained the veterans of the Gulfport Veterans' Administration hospital since October through the National Catholic Services are asked to send the number of hours spent there, to the president of their local organization.

Father O'Malley spoke on the article "What My Faith Means to Me," that recently appeared in the New Orleans States.

Good Neighbors Club Has Valentine Party

The Good Neighbors Club of Cedar Point gave a Valentine party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Sick, Tuesday night.

TAXES

114 when it is figured that this county pays .53 percent of taxes in Mississippi, according to an economic index of counties. The state, which pays .0067 of the total federal tax burden, would save $60,970,000, the Council estimates.

"The President has said that the present war emergency requires the Government to tax the American people until it hurts. The people of Mississippi are willing to be so taxed, if necessary, provided the Government itself will reduce non-essential spending until it hurts."

"It is all very well for the Government to siphon additional taxes from the income of people for the professed purpose of checking inflation. But when the government turns right around and spends this money on a 'business as usual' basis, it does not make sense. Dollars unnecessarily spent by the government cause just as much inflation as dollars spent by its citizens."

The quarterly meeting of the Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs was held in the auditorium of the First Methodist Church in Biloxi Friday, February 9, at 2:00 p. m. The Oak Park and Acacia Garden Clubs were hostesses.

Hyle J. Bittner, guest speaker for the afternoon, spoke on "Science and Gardening." Mr. Bittner told those present how a successful garden can be produced by propagating plants in water and gravel; this is called the hydroponic system. The speaker illustrated, on a blackboard, how water fills and drains into a tank and how chemicals can be added as they are needed for the nourishment of plants.

NEW OFFICERS

Mrs. Hyle J. Bittner of Biloxi was elected president of the organization at the business meeting which followed the discussion. Mrs. Dorothy Dennis of Pass Christian was chosen first vice president; Mrs. T. C. McCall, Biloxi, recording secretary; Mrs. Henry Wolfe, Biloxi, auditor; Mrs. D. E. A wedding claiming local interest was that of Miss Lula Mae Crawford, daughter of Mrs. Leon Ginn of this city and the late E. Crawford, and Wilbert Adam of New Orleans, son of Mrs. Ora McArthur and Emile Adam of Bay St. Louis.

The double ring ceremony was performed before the altar of the Main Street Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. H. Bufkin Oliver.

The church was decorated with white gladiolus, fern and ivy. Mrs. J. B. Goldman, church organist, played the traditional wedding marches for the entrance and departure of the bride party. Mrs. Goldman also accompanied Miss Gloria Biehl who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride given in marriage by her stepfather, Leon Ginn, Sr., wore a wedding gown of ice blue satin fashioned with a tight fitting bodice with a high neck line of net edged with satin folds. The sleeves, long, tight fitting and button trimmed, ended in points over the hand. Completing the dress was a full skirt which fell in a graceful train. Her finger-tip veil of lace and net was held by a heart shaped satin hat crushed with lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white orchids.

The bride had as her maid of honor, Miss Ramona Adam of Gulfport, sister of the bridegroom. She chose a pink net gown which was made with a tight bodice and cap sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. She wore a band of blue carnations and blue maline on her head and carried blue carnations.

Helen Seary of San Antonio, Texas, a cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl. She wore a dress of pink net on the same lines as that of the maid of honor. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of sweet peas.

Barry Stephens of Gulfport, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Mr. Adam had as his best man, John Ginn, step-brother of the bride. The ushers were Leroy Adam and Prosper Sick of New Orleans.

Mrs. Ginn chose for her daughter's wedding, a navy blue dress made with a sweetheart neck line and a full taffeta ruffle skirt; with this she wore an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was absent from the wedding because of a death in her family.

A reception at the Ginn home followed the ceremony. Decorating the reception rooms and dining room, were white gladiolus and fern. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth, and the wedding cake was placed in the center with silver candelabra with lighted candles at either end.

The young couple, following the reception, left on a wedding trip. For traveling the bride chose a pink wool gabardine suit with which she wore a navy crepe blouse and navy accessories. Completing the outfit was a pink felt hat trimmed in a blue veil. Upon their return they will be at home in their apartment at 321 Carroll avenue.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lewis, of Meridian, Mrs. J. P. Seary and daughter of San Antonio, Texas; J. Gilbert, Louis Hertel, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Adam and family; Prosper Sick, Gloria Biehl, Mrs. Tillman Miller and son of New Orleans; Mrs. R. J. Stephens and family, Miss Ramona Adam and Mrs. C. Ladner of Gulfport.
